UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
NORTHERN DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA

SHIKEB SADDOZAI,
Plaintiff,
v.
CLAWSON, et al.,
Defendants.

Case No. 18-cv-05558-BLF

MOTION FOR RECONSIDERATION
ORDERING APPOINTMENT OF
COUNSEL UNDER NEW GROUNDS
NECESSARY FOR DUE PROCESS

Statement of the Case

Plaintiff, a state prisoner, filed the instant pro se civil rights action pursuant to 42 U.S.C. § 1983. The Court granted plaintiff's in forma pauperis, and found plaintiff's complaint, stated a cognizable claim and ordered the matter served on the defendants. Plaintiff has filed a declaration with this motion requesting appointment of counsel, preliminary injunction, court ordering prison officials to cease and desist violence, harassment and retaliation to interfere with plaintiff's civil action, and showing good cause why court should not dismiss this action, due to the circumstances at his current place of confinement.

Statement of Facts

Plaintiff has been transferred and placed at a Mental Health Crisis Bed at the California Institution for Men, and clinically assessed to "Mental Health Services Delivery System" under the Correctional Clinical Case Management System Level of care; upon arrival on November 12, 2019, and remained under doctor care to November 20, 2019. See Ex.A. Thereafter plaintiff was transferred to designated custody prison at Corcoran State Prison, (CSP), and placed on lockdown status for over fifteenth (15) days without privileges, without reason, exacerbating his mental health illness by depravity of his confinement, and without his property

1 containing his legal materials and documents (i.e., exhibits,
2 pleadings, writing materials, draft paper, civil action complaint,
3 legal references, court address, stationary etc.,) illegally seized
4 and confiscated by custody officer's outside plaintiff's access
5 and control and at all times withheld at prior institution at 6 Ironwood State Prison, thereby preventing plaintiff from contacting
7 the court, attorney, and family. Plaintiff's legal correspondence
8 failed to immediately follow him to his placement of custody,
9 withheld, delayed, destroyed and or returned to sender, thereby 10 preventing plaintiff from discovering updates and developments of 11 case. Plaintiff was denied physical access and law library
12 resources necessary to obtain draft paper, writing materials,
13 conduct legal research, make legal copies, and legal envelopes,
14 available only upon physical access to facility law library
15 during operating schedule that failed to be provided, despite 16 plaintiff's efforts made through advance notices establishing 17 active court actions, and for reasons above plaintiff has shown 18 extraordinary circumstances, as well as "in the interest of just-19 ice" the court may exempt a general civil case if exceptional
20 circumstances will prevent meeting the goals and deadlines
21 imposed. Cal. Rules of Ct 3.714(c)(1). Plaintiff seeks appointment 22 of counsel for a limited purpose necessary for due process as 23 plaintiff is incapable based on his clinical assessment,
24 disabilities, due to being stripped of his legal materials,
25
26
27
28

his legal materials, obstruction of legal mail correspondence, denial of law library and resources, harassment, retaliation, force, fear, and threat by prison officials to intentionally interfere with plaintiff's legal litigation activities, are reasonable grounds why court should not dismiss plaintiffs actions and appoint counsel.

LEGAL ARGUMENT

A. Appointment of Counsel under 28 U.S.C. § 1915(e)(1)

Plaintiff has asserted grounds establishing exceptional circumstances warranting appointment of counsel. See Franklin v. Murphy, 745 F.2d 1221, 1236, (9th Cir. 1984); Agyeman v. Corrections Corp. of America, 390 F.3d 1101, 1104 (9th Cir. 2004). Plaintiff has intentionally had his legal materials consisting of pleadings, defendants discovery request, and legal documents related to case illegally confiscated, lost and or destroyed of essential legal documents and confinement without his legal materials and or access to legal materials is a factor supporting appointment of counsel especially in the need of documentary discovery followed by depositions to identify the proper defendants. Under the provisions of the in forma pauperis statute the federal court may request an attorney to represent an indigent litigant 28 U.S.C. § 1915(e)(1). As one court put it, counsel can explain the applicable legal principles to the complainant and...limit litigation to potentially meritorious issues. In addition, appointment of a lawyer

1 provides the unlettered inmate with
2 an opportunity to obtain represent-
3 ation equally qualified with the pr
4 ofessional counsel usually provided
5 by the state for the defendants. fr
6 equently, as in the present instance,
7 a lawyer can negotiate the settlement
8 of a meritorious claim. If the case
9 goes to trial, counsel for the plaint-
10 iff can shorten the trial and limit
11 evidence to relevant issues, benefit-
12 ing his client, opposing parties and 13 the court. See. Knighton v. Watkins,
14 616 F.2d 795, 799 (5th Cir. 1980)

15 Plaintiff will not have access to relevant regulations through 16 discovery. See. Agyeman v. Corrections Corp. of America, 390 F.3d
17 1101, 1104 (9th Cir. 2004). Plaintiff's imprisonment has prevented
18 him from taking necessary discovery requests and encountered
19 multiple obstacles and interference by prison officials in 20 addition to the intricacies of the discovery rules. See. Montgom-
21 ery v. Pritchak, 294 F.3d 492, 502 (3d Cir. 2002). Plaintiff's
22 need for discovery request supports appointment of counsel. See.
23 Tabron v. Grace, 6 F.3d at 156 (3d Cir. 1993). Plaintiff's lack of 24 legal experience and complex discovery rules clearly put him at 25 a disadvantage in countering the defendants discovery tactics
26 and these rules are preventing plaintiff from presenting an 27 effective case. See. Parham v. Johnson, 126 F.3d 454, 459 (3d Cir. 1999)
28 Plaintiff can not effectively investigate case arising at a place of incarceration from which he had been transferred. See.
Tucker v. Randall, 948 F.2d 388, 391-92 (7th Cir. 1991), as well as obtain records that might help plaintiff discover and locate

1 witnesses that are forbidden to him that can be obtained by 2 counsel. See Johnson v. Howard, 20 F.Supp.2d 1128, 1129 (W.D.Mich.
3 1998); Tucker v. Randall, 948 F.2d 388, 391-92 (7th Cir. 1991).
4 For reasons stated in this motion counsel should be reconsidered.

6 B. Law Library and Legal Assistance.

7 Plaintiff has no access to (CSP) facility law library and 8 resources, that are only provided to plaintiff upon appointment
9 through inmate request forms that are repeatedly unresponded and 10 unresolved upon presenting librarian staff court documentation, 11 indicating active criminal appeal for custody offense and civil 12 litigations with 30 day established court deadlines as Pro se.
13 See Ex. B. (CSP), and prior prison facility has denied plaintiff
14 photo-copying of legal documents, notarizing services, legal book-
15 check-outs, print from legal reference materials and case laws
16 from the Electronic Law Library Delivery System with necessary
17 print or other electronic supplements of the Lexis-Nexis-System, 18 and failed to provide type-writer, nor are librarians trained in 19 the field of law and have refused to comply with the rules of the 20 court and facility policy. See Bounds v. Smith, 430 U.S. 817, 828, 97
21 S.Ct. 1491 (1977). Facility law library prevents inmates from 22 retaining copies of their legal documents, nor keep purchased 23 legal envelopes that can only be obtained from law library, and 24 upon completion must submit legal documents via law library legal 25 mail services or have uncompleted legal work confiscated,
26
27
28

1 requiring plaintiff to start all over again and redo copies of 2 his legal documents. Plaintiff is denied from making copies of 3 inmate complaints or affidavits from inmates in support of 4 plaintiff's claims or other legal documents in advancing
5 litigation, and forced to have his submissions screened by staff
6 prior to sending to the courts, thereby preventing plaintiff from 7 showing the court good cause why action should not be dismissed,
8 and such obstacles impair plaintiff's ability to present one's 9 case effectively are also actionable. See Cody v. Weber, 256 F.3d
10 764, 768 (8th Cir. 2001). Facility law library has repeatedly 11 failed operating pursuant to schedule denying plaintiff immediate 12 access on November-22, 25, 26, 27, 28, 29, December-2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 12, 13, 13 16, 17, 18, 19, 20, 23, 24, 25, 26, 27, 30, 31, of 2019, and January-1, 2, 3, 14 6, 7, 8, of 2020, as needed to make legal copies, conduct legal 15 research on the Lexis-Nexis-System, obtain legal draft paper, and 16 legal manila envelopes for mailing via law library legal mail
17 services, available only upon physical access to facility law
18 library. See Ex.C. Law librarian in her own omission to plaintiff's
19 inmate requests ordered plaintiff to request an extension of time
20 from the courts acknowledging the inadequacies and deficiencies 21 of facility law library, showing plaintiff's multiple attempts and 22 due diligent efforts that he did not willfully disobey or refuse
23 court actions due to circumstances not within plaintiff's
24 control.

C. District Court and Defendants Argument Relied on Citations and Responses to Plaintiff's Pleadings.

In the the District Courts responses to plaintiff's pleadings has undoubtedly contained seemingly authoritative citations and without physical access to facility law library or in the alternative to print citations, at all times denied to plaintiff that are only obtained from the electronic database only available during physical access to facility law library with a limited time during operating schedules which have been inconsistent to facility schedule, plaintiff cannot rebut the district courts ,or defendants arguments relied on citations, placing plaintiff In Pro se at even greater disadvantage, nor can plaintiff discover grievances to litigate effectively, thereby preventing plaintiff, meaningful access to the courts, post filing needs, research tools to form the basis of the courts decision and to comply. In addition facility law library has failed to follow current and update legal materials and case laws or their equivalents from legal publishers. Plaintiff is not even able to identify the materials he needs or a system of assistance by persons with legal training, and without the level of assistance or direct access to law library has been concluded by the Court without some legal assistance in addition to law library which logically must be provided in order to file such pleadings and reference case laws, plaintiff has little hope for pursuing court actions, defendants arguments and discovery requests for.

1 Constitutional violations arising from conditions of incarceration
2 also in which unforeseen and exceptional circumstances later
3 develop that are not within plaintiff's control or access.

4 See. Lindquist v. Idaho State Board of Correction, 776 F.2d 851, 855
5 -56 (9th Cir. 1985); Bribiesca v. Galaza, 215 F.3d 1015, 1020
6 (9th Cir. 2000); Taylor v. List, 880 F.2d 1040, 1047 (9th Cir. 1989);
7 Milton v. Morris, 767 F.2d 1443, 1447 (9th Cir. 1985).

9 D. Interference with Court Access.

10 Plaintiff at all times, is denied ability to present
11 affirmative evidence, while forced to invest time and research in 12 filing inmate complaints, thereby frustrating, impeding and impair-
13 ing plaintiff's litigation activities due to prison officials
14 intentional interference, made evident by deliberately violating 15 plaintiff's legal mail correspondence in withholding, delaying,
16 and returning mail correspondence back to sender. Plaintiff in 17 using the inmate prison complaint system has had his complaints
18 repeatedly canceled and rejected, leaving him without remedy and 19 only inviting additional reprisal actions by correctional 20 officers. The Supreme Court has explained such retaliation
21 offends the constitution is that it threatens to inhibit exercise
22 of the protected right... Retaliation is thus akin to an 23 'unconstitutional condition' demanded for receipt of a government-
24 provided benefit". See. Crawford-El v. Britton, 523 U.S. 574, 588 n.10
25 118 S.Ct. 1534 (1998). Plaintiff is not given or have an:
26
27
28

1 "adequate remedy of law" there is actual danger of violation to 2 plaintiff's rights. See Orantes-Hernandez v. Thornburgh, 919 F.2d
3 549, 564 (9th Cir. 1990). Plaintiff under pressure of litigation
4 and interference of that litigation by prison officials has 5 effected him personally in which the court has the ability to 6 handle to preserve that right. See Clement v. California Dep't of 7 Corrections, 364 F.3d 1148, 1152-53 (9th Cir. 2004); Ashker v.
8 California Dep't of Corrections, 350 F.3d 917, 924 (9th Cir. 2003):
9 Prison officials have used the Strategic Offender Management
10 System (SOMS) to "Red Flag" plaintiff resulting from using the 11 inmate complaint system, and are viewed by correctional officers
12 in their activities set by a secrecy code of conduct causing 13 plaintiff prejudice, bias, and stimulating violence condoned by 14 prison officials, and those files of plaintiff may be altered and 15 modified by officers without a court order, for example; posting
16 plaintiff's actual inmate complaint with personal, negative
17 notations to impose additional cruel and unusual punishment, 18 making plaintiff the subject of hatred to all correctional 19 officer's, made evident by prison officials persistent series of 20 harassment, retaliation, threats, illegal confiscation of plaintiff's 21 legal materials, deliberately placed outside his access and 22 control, lockdown exceeding 24 hours for over 15 days excluding 23 privileges without reason, thereby forcing plaintiff into mental 24 health care with the intent to unjustifiably obstruct plaintiff's
25
26
27
28

1 Pro se pleading's. See Procunier v. Martinez, 416 U.S. 396, 419, 94
2 S.Ct. 1800 (1974). In Ramirez v. Yates, the Courts have held that the 3 time limit was equitably tolled for prisoners who missed the dead-
4 line because of interference or inadequate facilities or assistance
5 from prison officials. See Ramirez v. Yates, 471 F.3d 993, 998
6 (9th Cir. 2009). See Ex.D.

8 E. Plaintiff's Mental Health Issues and Physical Disabilities.

9 The Court should consider plaintiff's mental health issues
10 warranting appointment of counsel or guardian ad litem under 11 Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 17(c), or issue another appointment 12 order to protect a incompetent person who is unrepresented in an 13 action Fed.R.Civ.P. 17(c)(2). Plaintiff Clinical assessment
14 in accordance with the Mental Health Services Delivery System (MHSDS)
15 under the Correctional Clinical Case Management System (CCCMS) level
16 of care reflected in plaintiff's assessment forms. See Ex.E.
17 In addition plaintiff has physical disabilities and is taking 18 psychotropic medications. See Ex.F. showing evidence, triggering 19 the courts duty to order counsel is also sufficient to raise
20 substantial questions rendering plaintiff effective representation
21 In Pro se. See e.g., Powell v. Synons, 680 F.3d 301, 307 (3rd Cir. 2012)
22 ; Ferrelli v. River Manor Health Care Center, 323 F.3d 196, 203
23 (2d Cir. 2003). Plaintiff has presented "varifiable evidence" at the 24 time was not available to him, resulting of confiscation of his 25
26
27
28

1 property by custody officers, and while placed on lockdown status,
2 in the form of records from a mental health professional
3 sufficient to trigger courts duty of inquiry under Rule 17(c). See.
4 Ferrelli, 323 F.3d at 201-02. Plaintiff is unable to state his 5 claims due to his mental health issues as well as his physical
6 disabilities suffered sufficiently related to plaintiff's
7 confinement has psychologically effected his competence, as well as 8 impeded, frustrated, and impaired his ability to accurately initiate 9 and maintain legal litigation activities. In addition Plaintiff's
10 mental health issues has caused significant disruption in plaintiff's
11 everyday life and which prevents his functioning. Plaintiff
12 has been diagnosed with serious depression, anxiety, and such 13 mental impairments constitutes disabilities under those statutes,
14 See. 42 U.S.C. § 10803, requiring representation. See. Oregon
15 Advocacy Center v. Mink, 322 F.3d 1101, 1121, 22 (9th Cir. 2003).
16 One Court has held that persons sentenced have a right to "a treatment 17 program that will address their particular needs with 18 reasonable objectives of rehabilitation. The same is true for 19 plaintiff receiving assistance from counsel to ensure due process
20 and not to be deprived of fair representation caused by disadvantage
21 of his mental health issues. See. Ohlinger v. Watson, 652 F.2d
22 775, 777-79 (9th Cir. 1980). Given the difficulty of the case
23 involving multiple defendants plaintiff is not competent to 24 litigate it himself making plaintiff ill-suited. See. Baronowski v.
25 Hart, 486 F.3d 112, 126 (5th Cir. 2007); Solis v. County of Los Angeles, 26
27
28

1 514 F.3d 946,958 (9th Cir.2008). There is evidence in record with 2 plaintiff's declaration bearing on his intellectual capacity and 3 psychological history relevant. See Hamilton v. Leavy, 117 F.3d 742,
4 749, (3rd Cir.1997).

CONCLUSION

For the foregoing reasons, plaintiff's motion should be granted in its entirety. If plaintiff is denied motion, plaintiff objects ruling and does not waive his right on issues for appeal on genuine issues of material fact that preclude dismissal of plaintiff's claims.

Dear Mr. SADDOZAI:

This memorandum is being generated as formal response to the CDCR 22, INMATE/PAROLEE REQUEST FOR INTERVIEW, ITEM OR SERVICE REQUEST dated October 28, 2019, addressed to the Warden N. McDowell, Chief Deputy Warden R. Smith, and Associate Warden, S. Moore.

On Tuesday, November 12, 2019, during an interview conducted at your request, you presented the Investigative Services Unit (ISU) with multiple documents you identified as being documentary evidence of potential violations, which prevented you from disclosing on an inmate request form. Upon review of the documents submitted by you, it was determined your safety would be at risk if remained housed at ISP; therefore Administrative Segregation Unit (ISU) placement was warranted in order to protect your safety and the safety of the institution. ISU has initiated an Investigation into your safety/enemy concerns at ISP, based on your allegations of being harassed and threaten by inmates housed on Facility B, who you identified as being active Security Threat Group (STG) members/associates. You may remain in ASU pending completion of the investigation and or review by the Institutional Classification Committee (ICC) to determine your future programming needs.

Furthermore, your allegations regarding the staff misconduct should be addressed and submitted utilizing a CDCR 602, INMATE/PAROLLE APPEAL Form.

Dear Shikeb Saddozai,

The Office of the Inspector General (OIG) received your voice messages on December 5th, 8th, 20th, 23, and 26th of 2019, and on January 13, 2020. You allege that you reported a leak in your cell, but staff took no action, you have not received a response to a few of your appeals, Form 22s are not available, you have been retaliated against for submitting appeals for being on lockdown status for more than 15 days, your property was confiscated on November 12, 2019 when it did not follow you when you were transferred from Ironwood State Prison (ISP) to California State Prison, Corcoran, and that certain ISP correctional staff attempted to intimidate you into withdrawing an appeal during a telephone interview. We have conducted a review into the issues you raised. Based on our review of your complaint, we determined that no further intervention is warranted by our office at this time. We apologize for our delay in responding to your correspondence.

When conducting our reviews, we document and review the alleged activity, review applicable policies and procedures, and request additional documentation from the California Department of Corrections and Rehabilitation (CDCR), as needed. Our reviews may also require us to request an inmate appeals tracking system report from the department to ensure that inmates have access to formal administrative remedies.

We also attempt to determine if you have attempted to obtain resolution to your complaint by filing a CDCR Form 22, Inmate/Parolee Request for Interview, Item or Service or CDCR 1824, Request for Reasonable Accommodation. If your request was unsuccessful, we encourage you to utilize your available administrative grievance remedies by filing a CDCR 602, Inmate/Parolee Appeal form. You should continue the administrative grievance process until you have received a final decision by the CDCR's third level of review. If you have received a response by the third level of review and believe the department failed to appropriately address your concerns, you may choose to resubmit your complaint to our office and include the reasons why the department's response was inappropriate.

Dear Shikeb Saddozai,

The Office of the Inspector General (OIG) has received your correspondence dated September 29, 2019 concerning access to the law library, living conditions and medical treatment while you were previously housed at Ironwood State Prison.

We conducted a review into the issues you raised and determined no further intervention is warranted by our office at this time. In the future, we encourage you to utilize the available administrative grievance remedies until you have received a final decision by the California Department of Corrections and Rehabilitation (CDCR) third level of review.

If your appeal is screened out, we recommend you follow the instructions provided by appeals staff and resubmit your appeal to the appeals office within 30 days. If you wish to do so, you may use a CDCR Form 22 as a receipt when submitting your CDCR Form 602 appeal to institutional staff. Please contact your correctional counselor for advice and assistance regarding questions about the process or the status of your appeal/grievance.

If your appeal is canceled, and you dispute the reasons for canceling your appeal, you may file a new appeal disputing the appeal coordinator's reasons for cancelation, explaining why the cancelation was improper or why the appeal should have been processed. You should attach the original appeal and the cancelation notice with any documentation supporting your claim that the appeal was improperly rejected, and submit the whole package to the appeals coordinator. Please note, you must appeal the cancelation within 30 days of the issuance of the CDCR Form 695 (Screening For: CDCR Form 602 Inmate/Parolee Appeals).

Regarding concerns with appeal issues submitted to our office, please include copies of supporting documents such as copies of submitted CDCR Form 602 appeal form and/or CDCR Form 22, if applicable. Also, do not send us originals, as we will not be able to return them.

Dear Shikeb Saddozai,

The Office of the Inspector General has received your correspondence dated September 11, 2019 concerning your allegation that certain custody officers illegally confiscated much of your property at the California Correctional Institution in preparation for your transfer to Wasco State Prison.

Before this office will consider taking any action on your concerns, you must first demonstrate your attempts to obtain resolution to your issues by completing the formal administrative process with the California Department of Corrections and Rehabilitation (CDCR), such as filing a CDCR Form 22, CDCR 602 Inmate/Parolee Appeal, or CDCR 1824 Request for Reasonable Accommodation.

We encourage you to continue using available administrative grievance remedies until you have received a final decision by the third level of review. If your appeal was screened out in the last 30 days, we recommend you follow the instructions provided by appeals staff and resubmit your appeal to the appeals office. If you wish to do so, you may use a CDCR Form 22 as a receipt when submitting your CDCR Form 602 appeal to institutional staff. Please contact your correctional counselor for advice and assistance regarding questions about the process or the status of your appeal/grievance.

If your appeal has been cancelled, and you dispute the reasons for cancelling your appeal, you may file a new appeal disputing the appeal coordinator's reasons for cancellation, explaining why the cancellation was improper or why the appeal should have been processed. You should attach the original appeal and the cancellation notice with any documentation supporting your claim that the appeal was improperly rejected, and submit the whole package to the appeals coordinator. Please note, you must appeal the cancellation within 30 days of the issuance of the CDCR Form 695 (Screening For: CDCR Form 602 Inmate/Parolee Appeals).

In the future, regarding concerns with appeal issues submitted to our office, please include copies

Reason for Appointment

1. f/u. Pt had EMG done. Pt is here for R ulnar nerve palsy. Pt denies pain at this time. MSA II AVIDrio

History of Present Illness*Provider note:

Pt was rejected from Stanford hand due to status as Jail Pt per note in July. Pt says he has had little improvement in hand function since his last visit.

Vital Signs

Pain scale 0/10.

ExaminationGeneral:

Numbness still on dorsum of hand. Still loss of RF and SF extension, IF and MF normal extension. Also loss of sensation in Ulnar dist with SF and RF. However, intrinsic function present.

Assessments

1. Radial neuropathy - G56.30 (Primary)
2. Ulnar neuropathy - G56.20

Treatment1. Radial neuropathy

Notes: EMG shows partial ulnar and partial radial nerve loss of function. Strang pattern that is c/w blast injury and partial radial nerve injury. Now close to 1 year post injury with limited return of function. I was hoping to get Stanford hand opinion to help with management of this patient. I would still recommend getting them involved. He most likely at this point would benefit from tendon transfers to replace SF and RF extension. Again, I would refer to stanford for this procedure as I do not perform.

Preventive Medicine
